

TEADIT MONOTAPE 12

Teadit Monotape 12 is made from pure expanded PTFE. The manufacturing process is subjected to quality controls, which is recorded in our DIN EN ISO 9001.

Propriétés :

Extremely soft and pliable, it offers excellent thermal and chemical resistance, it can be used in all types of industries. Its excellent chemical compatibility (pH 0-14) promotes its use on most media. Its exceptional malleability allows use in all seals or low clamping pressures are required flanges enamelled glass clamps, flanges or valves PTFE, PVDF ... All these features make TEADIT 2007 one of the most used tapes on the market.

Agréments :

- FDA

Avantages :

Because of its wide range of applications, TEADIT Monotape 12 successfully replaces many types of joints, particularly in tests or repairs, reducing the number of references in the store. Easy to implement with its adhesive side, setting up easy in all conditions vertical or horizontal.

A wide range of sizes to cover all needs. No need for specific tools for cutting and the establishment.

Color	Temperature	Density (g/cm3)	Pressure (Bars)	Preservation
White	-240/+260	0.50	100	Undefined

Médias d'applications :

Very versatile, it can be used on the rotary sumpes, faucets, valves, agitators ... It is particularly suitable for chemical applications.

Can safely be used on virtually all chemicals including more aggressive. It is widely used in industries such as drinking water companies, depâtes paper, chemicals and petrochemicals, power plants ... FDA approved, its use is recommended for drinking water and food or chemical industries.

We reserve the right to modify our products and ranges at any time to improve them.

image not readable or e
homez.348/animanet/h